

SOUTH ALBANY

The annual donation will be held in the M. E. church Friday evening, Jan. 29. There will be a speaker for the evening. Oysters will be served in the new dining room. A cordial invitation to all.

BROWNINGTON

Enos Lapiere recently visited his father, Hector Lapiere.

Mrs. Geo. Dwire of Sheffield has been visiting relatives and friends in town.

Al Fulford of Passumpsic is working for his brother-in-law, Phil Powers.

Mrs. Leon Buck of East Charleston spent the week-end with her brother, Lincoln Campbell.

Mrs. Al Fulford of Passumpsic was the guest of her father, Truman Aiken, last week.

Mrs. Collins Lacourse and sister, Mrs. Blouin, visited their father, Alex Provencha, in Derby recently.

Mrs. Ella Sevens of Derby is at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Emerson, helping care for Roy Emerson, who is quite ill.

Don't forget the donation for the benefit of Rev. John Robinson Friday evening, Feb. 22. There will be a literary program and music. All cordially invited. Ladies furnish for the table as usual.

MRS. OREM WOODS.

Ada Belle Allen was born in Glover August 17, 1889. When quite young she moved with her parents to Charleston where she lived until Aug. 14, 1905, when she married Orem Woods and came to Brownington, where she has since lived. The death of her parents was peculiarly sad, her father committing suicide by hanging about thirteen years ago, and some years later the body of her mother was found in the waters of Crystal lake at Barton, evidently a suicide. Mrs. Woods was a sweet, sunny-faced woman and very devoted to her home and family. For the past year she has been in ill health and after the birth of her twin daughters Nov. 2, she gradually failed and, although all was done that care and medical skill could, she passed peacefully to the other life the evening of Jan. 4, surrounded by those who loved her best. The funeral service was held at the church at Brownington Center, Jan. 6. Rev. John Robinson speaking words of comfort to the bereaved ones. Burial was at the cemetery here. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, five little daughters, two brothers, Clarence Allen who lives in the West, and Walter of New Hampshire, beside many friends. The family wish to thank all who so kindly assisted them during the illness and death of their beloved one, the singers for the sweet selections rendered. May richest blessings be theirs.

Mrs. Emily Albee of Barnet is the guest of Mrs. L. E. Spafford. Mrs. Albee is vice-president of the W. C. T. U. of Caledonia county and much interested in the work of this organization.

Roy Skinner and family have returned to Bingham, Me., after spending a week at the home of Mr. Skinner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Skinner.

Miss Winifred Williams of the Parker, Young company at Lisbon is at the Chandler company offices at work on the annual auditing of the books of that company.

There was another large attendance at the dancing school Wednesday night but on account of a Masonic celebration at Lyndonville this week there will be no dancing lesson.

J. G. Turnbull was re-elected president of the Vermont State Dairyman's association at the recent meeting in Burlington and M. A. Adams of Derby was re-elected as treasurer of that association.

According to figures compiled by the U. S. bureau of education, Vermont reduced her illiteracy rate from six to 1000 inhabitants in 1900 to two per 1000 in 1910. Only a few states stand ahead of Vermont in this respect.

Several Orleans whist enthusiasts were at Barton Monday night where an informal whist tournament was held at the home of Dr. F. R. Hastings. The Orleans and Barton contingents played to a very close total score.

Do not forget that Friday evening, Jan. 29th, is the date of the Dunbar Quartet's entertainment in the opera house, the third of the lecture course series. The Dunbars have been here before and all are anxious to hear them again.

R. A. Bean, L. M. Kinsley, E. C. Skinner and Dr. Cleasby were at Parker pond for two days' fishing, going in automobiles. Do you happen to remember a season when automobiles were able to run on country roads in January before this?

Word from W. J. Sageman, who spends his summers in town and who was very ill at the Valley House this fall, states that he and Mrs. Sageman are at their winter home in St. Petersburg, Fla., and that Mr. Sageman is much improved in health.

There will be a new departure in photoplay at the opera house tomorrow night, when the proprietors of the Gem theatre, Barton, are to show the five-reel feature, "Monte Cristo." Arrangements have been made to show a feature play every Thursday evening and a regular program on Saturday evenings here.

Miss Marie Darling was taken seriously ill Thursday and again had a second acute attack Friday and was hurried to the hospital at Hanover, N. H., where an operation for appendicitis was performed. The case was of a very serious nature and much anxiety is felt here for her recovery, although she underwent the operation very favorably and her condition seems to be improving.

There was a very interesting and profitable meeting of the Willoughby Fish and Game club held at the club-rooms Thursday evening, at which time a committee was appointed to see if a change may be made on the open season for taking salmon from Willoughby lake and river and also there was some talk of having some sort of social function in the near future.

At the regular meeting of Geo. C. Mead W. R. C. No. 49, Jan. 12, the following officers, elected in December for the ensuing year, were installed in office in their room by Mrs. Mary E. Moulton, past president: President, Mrs. Eva Haselton Parker; senior vice-president, Mrs. Lora E. Foss;

"My $2.00 Gossard Corset is such a Comfort"

Since the introduction by us of a Gossard at $2.00 many women have made the above statement. Think what it means to have a genuine Gossard, with all of its exclusive and original features such as long tailored skirt, present vogue waistline, long wearing "Everlast" cloth, and boning that will not rust.

MODEL 250

A model designed for the average figure, being carefully modeled in each size to suit the light as well as the heavy type. Has medium low bust line, flat back effect, free hip boning, and six supporters. You cannot duplicate this Gossard Corset at twice the price.

You women who have hesitated in your selection of a Gossard Corset because of price should see this model. Try it on in our fitting rooms—examine it carefully and then buy it, only after you are thoroughly convinced of its worth. We guarantee your satisfaction with this corset. It will surprise you as it has thousands and thousands of women.

See this corset today.

Other Gossard Corsets $3.50, 5.00 and up 25.00.

MODEL 364

Has a medium low bust and a long skirt that moulds the lower part of the figure, reducing the hips. The waist line is natural, there is a comfortable fullness over the diaphragm. Made in special Sterling Everlast Cloth, which wears wonderfully well. Price, in all sizes 3.50.

You can see how well you look in this model by having a trial fitting. No obligation follows a fitting—we invite a trial tomorrow or any day you want to learn what a Gossard will do for you.
